INTERACTIVE SESSION REPORT (2022-2023)

A session with Fr Dr M Arockiasamy Xavier SJ, the Principal of St. Joseph's College, Tiruchirappalli was held on 13th February 2023 in Buddha Conference Hall from 08:45 AM to 09:45 AM for all the faculty members. Dr (CS) Mala Kumari Upadhyay moderated the session. After a soulful prayer by Ms Soumya Shukla, the guest was formally welcomed with a shawl and bouquet.

Fr Dr M Arockiasamy Xavier SJ started the session with a presentation of a short documentary on St. Joseph's College, Tiruchirappalli. He said that the QS ranking is an important ranking for a higher educational institution. He also briefly explained the meaning of quality. Quality is not an act, it is a habit. Quality can be ensured by interiorizing our vision and mission, translate it through proper strategy, understand institution's integral growth in all parameters and performing well. He discussed about the core elements of quality assurance and role of Internal Quality Assurance System (IQAS). Regarding research, he said that creating a strong research culture is very important, constant capacity building should be done through knowledge sharing and motivation. Research should culminate into a product or help in policy formation.

He further explained through the documentary, the facilities available and activities of St. Joseph's College (SJC), Tiruchirappalli. He discussed about the different research collaborations of SJC with other institutions in India and abroad. They also release grants from the management to their research scholars for research. They have a herbarium and a museum which attracts researchers from all over the world. A cell named 'Shepherd' is started to provide subsidized meal every day to the students from poor family background. He discussed the importance of Library in a higher educational institution. Incubation and innovation at SJC was shown where they also conduct yearly events and give cash prizes up to one lakh. Lastly, he said that newspaper publishing helps a lot in NAAC.

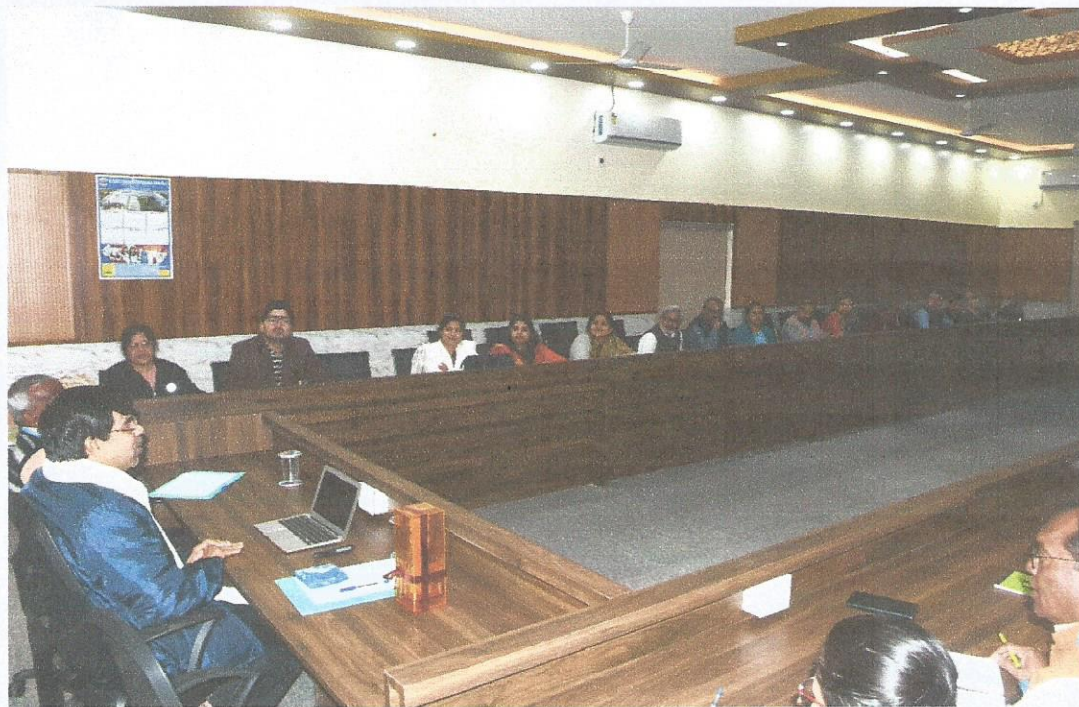

A short question and answer session was held after the presentation. The session ended with a vote of thanks by Dr Anurag Ambasta.

Evaluation of Interactive Session

with Fr Dr M Arockiasamy Xavier SJ (13 February 2023)

Points of appreciation:

1. Good to know about various aspects of St. Joseph's College, Trichy
2. Got various inputs that would help us in preparation for NAAC cycle 2
3. Question answer session was good.
4. Good information on outreach programme.
5. Insight on research avenues.
6. St Joseph's College is committed to the cause of the poor by admitting 50% of students from economically backward classes. It is also reflected in terms of the scholarships they provide to students.
7. The museum, the multi-faceted infrastructures and the sophisticated lab instruments in the lab are something very special to St Joseph's College.

Points for magis:

1. Very little time was given.
2. It was more of promoting St. Joseph's College.
3. Our college needs sacrificing and highly motivated faculty members.
4. Discussion was not our college specific.
5. The audio in the hall was irritating.
